

FOLMS Newsletter

September 2014

Well done and thank you to Jessica, Lexie, Chloe, Lauren and Bria for your fantastic entries in the FOLMS logo competition. Jessica's winning entry is at the start of the newsletter and all the runners up are displayed at the end. Well done to everyone!

The Christmas Fayre will be on Friday 28th November. If you would like a table at the fayre we will be charging £10 to sell your own items plus a donation to the raffle. If you are interested in having a stall or know someone else who is please ask them to send us an email to book a table.

Our next FOLMS meeting is next week Wednesday 1st October at school at 7pm.

We will be discussing the Christmas Fayre and other fundraising ideas. Please come along if you can.

Ice cream sales will continue for a few weeks, followed by a tuck shop. All items will be 50p

Please add these dates to your diary. Further details on events will be sent out nearer the time.

FOLMs have funded a superb resource to support our Personal, Social & Health Education (PSHE), the Life Education Caravan which was in school a few weeks ago.

Each class had one session in the caravan where they learnt a range of topics related to relationships, their bodies, what is good for you and what is not.

We hope they all enjoyed the experience.
